

GLOBAL REACH. GLOBAL SCALE.

Seabury Capital operates a number of specialty finance, investment banking, technology and software companies with a core focus anchored in Aviation, Aerospace & Defense, Maritime, and financial services/technology. Since its founding in 1996, Seabury Capital LLC has historically been the investment holding company of its founder, John E. Luth, operating as a venture capital firm with ownership stakes in software and asset management businesses servicing the aviation and travel industries.

Within the last few years, Seabury Capital has expanded its portfolio by investing in early stage startup companies within the financial technology industry and structured investment products. In addition, Seabury Capital owns and operates FINRA regulated investment banking services firms in the U.S. and U.K. serving external clients as well as assisting the companies in which Seabury Capital has invested.

Seabury Capital has operations in New York, Jersey City, Summit (NJ), Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Stamford (CT), Amsterdam, Cordoba, Dublin, Durban, Hong Kong, London, Manila, Singapore and Tokyo.
